

To Whom It May Concern:

I am very pleased to recommend the services of Nancy Baldwin, who conducted a moving/tag sale for me on March 15, 2008

As those who had recommended her to me had said she would, Nancy conducted the sale with efficiency informed by her years of experience. In addition, she was extremely sensitive to my wishes and, yes to some reservations I had. She handled the items which were for sale, from large pieces of furniture and to small 'remnants' of kitchen items, with care. She displayed them attractively in a restricted part of my home. In doing so she confined purchasers to that area. She priced each item in a way that I am sure reflected her knowledge and experience and was attractive to buyers.

I am told that there was a steady stream of people during the six hours of the sale. No doubt this was due, in part, to the advertising she had done in the days prior to the sale. In the end, the proceeds of the sale were very gratifying.

Once the sale was over she removed, or arranged for the removal of, the unsold items, and then she left the house clean and in good order.

In the days since the sale, which occurred two days prior to the closing of the sale of my house, I have come to appreciate even more what a help Nancy was at that very busy time. She relieved me of more than I had thought would be the case. Now I wonder how I would have completed the process without her.

She was a joy to work with, responsible and trustworthy in every way. I recommend her services with appreciation and enthusiasm.

Dear Nancy,

We are so glad that our son suggested you to us when we needed to find good homes for my parents belongings. Those many sales as we cleaned out the house were a perfect way to start dispersing the items. Your professionalism in the planning, advertising, and the actual sale were what we needed. And, we are still learning from you!

Thank you for your friendship.

Thank You so much Nancy:

You have been so helpful to me. It is such a pleasure finding someone like you who actually cares and is honest in your dealings with people. If at any time I can give you a recommendation I would be more than happy to do so.

Sincerely, Helen

Your work ethic and honesty are very impressive.
